It was mentioned in the May 2017 PAMI Bulletin that Pastor Michael Hista (Emmaus Bible Institute class of 2016) married Michelle Catubig (EBI class of 2015) on April 26. They started working in Candumaay, an unreached seaside barangay of Matnog soon thereafter and still need one or two sponsors to cover their $90 per month allowance and $25 per month motorcycle payment. A motorcycle will help them get around better to conduct home Bible studies and for Michelle to get to EBI each weekend to continue teaching Compassion sponsored kids. Sister Michelle recently started teaching English literacy tutorial classes in Candumaay using Bible based materials supplied by The Bible League. Sister Espie Fresto also received training from The Bible League to start this ministry in Mabini too. We are excited about this new partnership with The Bible League and how it opens another avenue for reaching kids and their parents.

Ptr Pio Garduque and Ptr Gumer Gile baptizing at Dancalan Beach, Bulusan

After the April 21st Irosin Rock for Jesus Battle of the Bands, a contest judge from Gubat with spiked hair decided to get baptized on May 7, along with 10 others (from Irosin, Cogon, Juag Island, and Barcelona). 4 from Castilla were baptized on May 3. Others were baptized in July.

64 attended 4th Youth Gathering held at EBI with theme FOR THE KING on May 6. Sis Ofel says "it is good to see youth on fire in God's Ministry. They are involving themselves in cell groups, lead Sunday service praise and worship, and teach other children musical instruments and tambourine dancing."
