The 20th EBI graduation was held March 30, with the theme "We Respond by Obeying". Of the three who graduated, Sheryl Joyce Coletorio was retained to work part-time as a Compassion teacher at Emmaus Bible Institute and part-time at Mabini. Sister Joyce is an orphan from Samar that has found a home with PAMI, and particularly likes ministering to children. Another big event at EBI was the April 26 wedding of two EBI alumni, Michael Hista (class of 2016) and Michelle Catubig (class of 2015). Sister Michelle is daughter of Pastor Rolly Catubig of PAMI Penafrancia Church, and has been working as a Compassion teacher for two years. Brother Michael now wants to join PAMI too, and could use $75 per month sponsorship. We plan to have Michael and Michelle pioneer in Candumaay, Matnog, where a lady is offering free use of a house. This is a place where Ptr Gumer has occasionally conducted Bible studies and children's ministry for 3 years and is ripe for further ministry development. Other EBI graduates could use sponsorship too.

April and May are summer vacation months in the Philippines. Several group baptisms are scheduled during this time, along with VBS, youth camp, musical instrument workshop, sports fest, etc. (see pictures below).
