Pasko (the Filipino word for Christmas) is a time of thanksgiving. Above are kids in Anog and Matnog, and EBI carolers. Fabrica church (orange backdrop) also celebrated their 26th anniversary and dedication of a new church building constructed last year. The new Mabini church building (below) is also being put to good use (160 at Christmas party).

Recent gifts in memory of Gary Nelson, Ardelle Throud, & Jerry Todd will cover some other construction (including a worship cottage in San Jose, Bulusan and finishing of a new EBI classroom) as well as helping to fund an all-PAMI youth camp scheduled for April. Celebrations were dampened a bit with Dec. 29 tropical storm Usman, which caused flooding and an outbreak of dengue fever. Several PAMI worker children have had to be hospitalized for a few days, including 3 of Pastor Redgie's kids (right). Please pray for full recovery and protection.
